Anti-Bullying Policy

6th November 2017

Dear Parents/Carers,

During the last academic year, children belonging to the School Council, wrote a new Anti-Bullying Policy in the hope to make it more accessible and understandable for all within the Horn Park School Community. Children thought about the content and considered what information would be useful to parents if they thought that their child was being bullied. As well as this, they also thought about the information that the child would find helpful.

We would like to share this draft policy with some of our parents during 'Anti-bullying week' in order to gain some feedback. We realise that bullying is an extremely important issue, and for this reason, we want to ensure that the policy has covered the key areas that parents feel should be addressed. If this has not yet been achieved, with your support, we would like to amend the policy.

We will be holding a coffee morning for all parents who wish to read the draft policy and contribute ideas on Wednesday 15th November at 9am in the studio.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Noel and Miss Waite,
